

ELECTION APPEALS MASTER

IN RE:

CANDIDATE FORUMS

01 Elec. App. 077 (KC)

This order formally confirms my oral decision announced at the conclusion of appeals hearing conducted on September 19, 2001.

For the entirely convincing reasons set forth in the Election Administrator's decision, and amplified at the hearing, and those seeking the reversal or modification of that decision not having impeached those reasons, the decision is in all respects affirmed as a reasonable exercise of discretion in furtherance of the Election Administrator's obligations under the Rules to inform the rank and file membership of campaign issues and stimulate broad voter participation in the international election of general offices.
