Re: Election Office Case No. P-126-LU952-CLA

Dear Mr Barclay:

The Election Office has received your pre-election protest, dated December 13, 1990, against Ed J Mireles alleging that Mr. Mireles improperly signed the names of other members of Local Union 952 to a slate declaration form for the election of delegates and alternate delegates to the 1991 IBT International Convention. We are also in receipt of your letter, dated December 17, 1990, seeking to withdraw your protest. In your December 17th letter you state that "[t]here is no evidence that Mr. Mireles signed any names other than his own" to the slate declaration form.

Based on your request, and your representation that there is no evidence to support your allegation that Mr. Mireles violated the Election Rules with respect to the slate declaration form, the Election Officer finds that the withdrawal of this protest is consistent with the purposes of the Election Rules. This case is hereby dismissed.

Very truly yours,

Michael H. Holland
